CHILD MARRIAGE IN EGYPT: THE CONTEXT

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

» The legal age of marriage registration in Egypt is set at 18 years. Yet, without criminalizing the perpetrators, girls are still getting married without registering or reporting their marriages, or registering their children born out of these marriages.

» Girls who marry before the age of 18 experience negative implications on their health, education, participation in the labor market and are at risk of contracting diseases.

» Child marriage not only affects the girls’ wellbeing, but also negatively affects the country with evident implications on higher fertility rates, health risks on the children and their mothers due to premature childbearing.

Adolescent girls in rural areas are 3 times more likely to marry below the age of 18 than in urban areas
