MEETING REPORT

Spotlight Initiative
To eliminate violence against women and girls

Initiated by the European Union and the United Nations:

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

World Vision
Hope, Joy and Justice for ALL Children

Overview

The African Union Commission (AUC), Health Humanitarian Affairs and Social Development Division through its Ending Harmful Practices Unit from April 26th -27th organised and hosted a consultative workshop meeting for National Human Rights Commissions in Eastern and Southern African countries at the AU International Conference Center in Addis Ababa.

This workshop aimed at strengthening the capacity of the National Human Rights Institutions to effectively contribute towards achieving the SDG target 5.3 to eliminate all harmful practices, such as child, early and forced marriage and female genital mutilation by 2030 in Africa.

Specific Objectives of the Consultative Meetings

- a) To orient National Human Rights Commissions on the AU campaign to End Child Marriage and the Saleema Initiative to End FGM (particularly the strategies) seeking their commitment towards achieving the Africa that We Want under Agenda 2063 – Aspiration 6: ‘An Africa whose development is people-driven, relying on the potential of African people, especially its women and youth, and caring for children’ and SDG target 5.3 to eliminate child marriage by 2030;
- b) To share experiences on the structure and work of National Human Rights Commissions in selected countries specifically related to the rights and protection of children including the work of NHRCs with Government Ministries and CSOs at national level;
- c) To assess the capacity of the National Human Rights Commissions to regularly collect disaggregated child marriage data in line with AU organs such as the ACERWC and other institutions.
- d) To discuss and come up with solid way forward on enhancing the capacity of National Human Rights Commissions to effectively investigate, follow-up and track child marriage cases and issues;
- e) To present the reporting mechanism AU harmful practices progress while using the accountability framework to monitor progress towards harmful practices;

Modality of the Consultative Meeting of the National Human Rights Commissions in East and Southern African region

1. Opening Ceremony : The meeting entailed an official opening ceremony during which high level opening remarks were delivered by the AU Director of Culture, Sports and Social Affairs, Madame Cisse Mariama, The AU special Rapporteur on Ending Child Marriage and other Harmful Practices Hon Hermaine Kembo, the USAID Head of Delegation to the African Union Mr Patrick Brady, a representative on the UNICEF representative to the AU and UNECA- Mr

Jephthe Mve Mondo and a representative of UNFPA representative to the AU and UNECA Ms Paolo Pileri.

1.1 Key Opening Statements:

- In her opening remarks, Madame Cisse Mariama, the AU Director of Sports, Culture and Social Affairs reiterated the responsibility of National Human Rights Institutions (NHRIs) in broadly protecting, monitoring and promoting human rights as described in the Paris Principles, and further, their role in addressing child marriage and FGM in a given country. She emphasised that NHRIs are a voice to the voiceless and therefore tasked them to use the workshop to effectively share existing country strategies and actions being used to track, investigate and litigate harmful practices and areas that AU through its key campaigns on Ending Child Marriage and Eliminating Female Genital Mutilation can provide technical assistance.

- Hon Hermaine Kembo Gatsing, the AU Special Rapporteur on Ending Child Marriage and other Harmful Practices, reaffirmed her support in working closely with the National Human Rights Commissions represented to advocate and enforce member state level legislation of the age of 18 years as the minimum legal age of marriage.

- Mr Jephthe Mve Mondo, who represented the UNICEF representative to the African Union and UNECA reminded the participants that for child marriage to end in Africa by 2030, evidence suggests that the rate of progress would need to be 15 times faster than the pace recorded over the last decade.

- During this session, the AUC Ending Harmful Practices Unit also made presentations on key strategic documents that are providing technical and policy direction to the continental and member state level campaign activities including: The AUC Ending Child Marriage Strategy 2019-2023, The AUC Eliminating Female Genital Mutilation Strategy/Saleema Initiative, The AUC Accountability Framework on Ending all forms of Harmful Practices

2. Country Experience sharing and discussion on the work of National Human Rights Commissions and how they are contributing to ending child marriage and FGM Opening Ceremony

Six countries (Madagascar, Malawi, Mozambique, Uganda, Ethiopia and Tanzania) presented the current level of NHRI Implementation of the AU campaigns to End Child Marriage and Eliminate Female Genital Mutilation. Presentations covered the country statistics of harmful practices to children, ongoing activities to track, investigate, report and litigate these violent crimes; as well as programmatic and policy barriers that NHRIs are currently faced with in fully exercising their authority to penalise perpetrators and hold stakeholders accountable for the prevention and protection of girls from these harmful practices. Country actions led by NHRIs are summarised in the pictorial

Recommendations for the National Human Rights Commissions Consultative Workshop Held in Addis Ababa on April 26th- 27th, 2022

1. National Human Rights Commission should adapt the AU accountability framework on eliminating harmful practices to improve reporting and monitor progress towards ending child marriage and FGM. The AUC will develop a roadmap for engaging the NHRI in the adaptation process of the accountability framework.
2. Improve the capacity of NHRI to effectively investigate, follow-up and respond to child marriage cases and complaints
3. Invest in research to understand the deeply rooted factors perpetuating Child marriage and FGM despite the so far made

4. National Human Rights Commission should consider working closely with young people in their programmes in bringing their voices as solutions to addressing the problems of child marriage and FGM in Africa.
5. Enhance the capacity building for NHRC responders and investigators to address complex child marriage and FGM cases
6. Strengthen data collection focusing on child marriage and FGM cases for prosecution and reporting in National annual Human rights status reports
7. Strengthen law enforcement and legislations on child marriage and FGM
8. Establish strong collaboration with traditional and religious authorities in promoting and protection children from child marriage and FGM
9. Support documentation of court cases related to child marriage and FGM that have been prosecuted and disposed off to learn from
10. Strengthen identification, reporting and referral pathways to manage cases related to child marriage and FGM
11. Support harmonization of laws and legislation on the age of child marriage and sexual consent in countries where there are contradictions.
12. Strengthen NHRI structures and units that focus on children to ensure adequate protection and promotion of their rights.
13. National Human Rights Institutions should support the promotion of child friendly courts so as to effectively prosecute children's case in a private manner.
14. Increase partnerships between NHRI and the civil society organization on issues related to promotion and protection of girls rights against harmful practices
15. Advice governments and parliament about child marriage and FGM country situations in a regular and timely manner to take appropriate actions
16. Support formulation and delivery of education initiatives, publicizing the human rights abuses related to child marriage and FGM

CLOSING REMARKS: Dr Nyaradzayi Gumbonzvanda- AU Goodwill Ambassador

In her closing remarks, the AU Goodwill Ambassador called on Human Rights Commissions to support harmonization of laws and legislation on the age of child marriage and sexual consent in countries where there are contradictions.
